Revelations 3:20 Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

UNBLOCKING THE WELL WITHIN

John 4:5-18 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. 6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour. 7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink. 8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.) 9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans. 10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water. 11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water? 12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle? 13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again: 14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life. 15 The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw. 16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither. 17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband: 18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

Documentation of John in the epistle of John reveals an encounter which Jesus Christ had with a Samaritan woman by a well. It goes down as one of the most referenced scriptures in the Bible, because it is rich with revelation knowledge of the truth.

After a long journey through the night, Jesus paused to rest by this famous well in the Samaritan city of Sychar. This famous well was dug in the days of Jacob many hundreds years earlier on, yet it still had water flowing out of it. This well had helped quench the thirst of multitudes, not just the thirst of men but also cattle and livestock. We know of wells that dry up within a matter of a few years but this particular well was different. Obviously what made the difference is the fact that this particular well tapped its water from a relatively endless spring or a river underneath the ground; it was from a source which was constantly replenished with water. These are things that people at times should pause, reflect and meditate on because God is speaking as you behold these things.

Jesus triggered the famous conversation with the woman by asking her for a cup of water from the well, so that he could drink. The Woman was surprised at the fact that a Jew will descend so low to ask a drink from a Samaritan whom the Hebrews considered inferior and unclean. Unknown to the woman she was having an encounter with the one true Jew, one whose origin is from the Jerusalem above. Jesus told the Lady of a particular gift of God unto all men; He told her, only if she knew of this priceless gift. Jesus likened the gift to water that will spring up as a well of water into eternal life which will eternally quench the thirst in men. We have to listen carefully and try to comprehend what this gift is all about, because for this reason the son of God has been revealed to the world.

On hearing of this gift the Samaritan woman asked Jesus for this water of life, but the response of Jesus sounded quite out of place, but He had a motive for this response. In response to the woman's request for this water springing up unto eternal life, Jesus asked the woman to get her Husband, and together they should come and meet Him so that he could give her this gift that springs up to eternal life. The woman had been married FIVE TIMES and divorced and the SIXTH man she was living with at that moment was not her Husband. Jesus knew fully well that she had no husband, and in reality she had an adulterous relation according to the Hebrew interpretation at that point in time because she was joined to one who was not her husband. Knowing fully well that His message will travel round the world and will read by innumerable generations to come, Jesus was using this occasion as ordained by the Father to communicate to those who have ears to hear what the spirit of truth is saying in this hour. There is no way the Samaritan woman could have understood the message that Jesus was trying to transmit. She acknowledged Him as a prophet simply because He was able to tell her about her secret life.

Jesus seized this opportunity to demonstrate to true seekers of His glory that to receive of that water unto eternal life, they have to present themselves before the Lord along with their true husband. That Samaritan woman today is a shadow of the Church of the living God, who has been united in marriage with the lie before now. As long as she (the Church) remains joined to the one who is not her true husband, there is no way they can ever partake of that fountain welling up into eternal life. I tell you a mystery unknown to many, Christ is the seventh, true and last Husband which that the woman representing the Church will have. It is when she unites back in one with Christ who is her true husband that she can once more see the streams springing up unto eternal life. Note that the meeting with Jesus took place during the sixth hour entering into the seventh hour which corresponds spiritually to the sixth day and the seventh day in which God created man and eventually rested. We are about to find out, that man created in the beginning on the sixth day is a product of marriage between Christ and the Church. We will discover also that the seventh day will come only after the sixth day, meaning that the perfect day and rest of God is made manifest only after the emergence of man in the image of the living God.

Like I normally do, I will make a reference to the Garden of Eden, because it is very rich with truth about our origin and the end of the faith. Many people are unaware of the fact that even Jesus made many references to the creation account Genesis 1 and the account on the Garden of Eden. He had read these scriptures along the years and knew what they were talking about as He went about demonstrating the mystery of godliness to men. The creation account in Genesis reveals the many sided manifold wisdom of God; as you view it with the eyes of the spirit you get to realize that there are many lessons to learn from it, and it can never be of any one private interpretation. Today we will view it in a slightly different way.

THE MARRIAGE THAT PRODUCED MAN IN THE BEGINNING

If we remember, God created man in His image and in His likeness, He created them male and female. Unknown to many, that is the true eternal marriage ordained of God from the beginning; It is the marriage that God put together in the beginning. The marriages we see this temporal material world are shadows of that true original marriage in the beginning.

Genesis 1:26-28 And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. 27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. 28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

The fruit or the seed of that marriage is the man created in the image and likeness of God; this is the one flesh (or one body) that the bible refers to.

This is the great mystery Paul was talking about.

Ephesians 5:30-33 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. 31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. 32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church. 33 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

Without the male that man (The Christ) in the image and likeness of God does not exist and without the female that man (The Christ) does not exist, in other words the male without the female is incomplete and vice versa. They must coexist together for the mystery of God to be made manifest.

1Corinthians 11:11 Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord. 1Co 11:12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things of God.

Paul called this union a mystery; it a mystery simply because in man's descent into mortality he lost all conscious knowledge of this truth. It goes beyond the normal comprehension arising from the human intellectual faculty, which is why the wise of this age never get to understand this mystery and indeed other mysteries that relate to God's kingdom. I shared on this marriage from the beginning in a church gathering some time back and the people were filled with rage because they felt I was speaking out of context; they actually gathered to hear a summon on their earthly marriages. I told them to make a search and see if there is any place where Jesus talked about earthly marriages. It is only to be expected that what I was preaching on the marriage from the beginning sounded like foolishness and thrash in their sight because the things that pertain to God's eternal invisible kingdom are foolishness and madness to the carnally minded man whose mind is fixed on the things that pertain to men and their false, temporary and imaginary world.

1Corinthians 2:12-14 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. 13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. 14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

Yes the spirit of God is given to us to understand the things that relate to God. As the voice of truth goes forth, bear in mind that there is nothing hidden from our sight in the fall that will not be revealed; as the great prince (Christ) stands in the midst of His people to deliver them from the jaws of death, all lies that have darkened the understanding of men will be dispersed. As the truth flows forth, the kingdoms of men founded on falsehood will dissolve into that original model that is from the beginning.

Going back to that marriage in the beginning, the male aspect represents the spirit of Christ, while the female aspect represents the souls/spirits of just men or the universal gathering called the church. So what we see in the beginning when man was created in the image and in the likeness of God is a union of the spirit (Christ) and the church. This union brings about the body of Christ or that man that is from the beginning. That man created in the beginning contains an innumerable number of spirits of just men fused together in one; it is a spiritual body with many members.

THE KNOWLEDGE OF THE LIVING GOD, OUR COVER

That union in the beginning is the union blessed of God throughout all eternity; the seed of this union rules over all and has all things freely given to Him by the Father for His enjoyment. Adam in the Garden of Eden before the fall is a parable or allegory showing the prosperous state and glory of the man created in the beginning who is in the image and likeness of God. The Garden of Eden or the paradise of God as it is called is the place of life to the fullness.

In this place a river sprang out and went out to water the garden and flowed out also to the four corners of the earth. The four corners of the earth refer to every major compartment of our being; it could be seen as the mind, will, desire and the heart. That water actually flowed as an endless font from a well in heart or depths of God. As that water flowed, it brought forth a conscious knowledge of the Father and the son. As long as these major compartments of man are influenced by that flow from the depths in God we are kept in perfect peace, joy and satisfaction. The water of life that gushes forth is knowledge of the true and living God so that those who live in the blessings of God are saturated in the knowledge of His presence and His love. This is the true eternal life that Christ came to reveal; that we should know the true God and the Christ and our part in this union (John 17:3). When we know Him and are so encompassed in His knowledge that we cease to exist as an entity apart and away from Him.

The envelopment in the knowledge of the knowledge and love of God is the one thing that can keep us in perfect peace because in that covering we know all things are working for our good; we know that nothing can separate us from the love of Christ so that death seizes or exist. The cover in the knowledge of God comes as the infinite flow of His knowledge typified by the river springing out of Eden encompasses us. In this knowledge then we witness the spiritual signs mention in Isaiah 11 and in Habakkuk 2.

Isaiah 11:6-9 The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. 7 And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. 8 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice' den. 9 They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

Habakkuk 2:14 For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

The wolf dwelling with the lamb, the leopard lying down with the kid, the lion eating straw like an ox etc. all point to the state of those who found themselves back in God's paradise on mount Zion. This signs occurs within each and everyone as we are totally encompassed with the knowledge of the Lord, flowing from the depth of God by His spirit within us. In His knowledge, every aspect of our being become completely harmonized in one with God, so that all duality within seizes; all double mindedness and sense of separation and enmity with God seizes because we see Him as He is and are completely enveloped into one with Him. If we have this flow and covering of His knowledge this is what will sustain us throughout all eternity. The worries and fears for tomorrow and survival seizes because we are in Him, emotional torments and desires that run wild seize and boldness is at it fullness so that we command things into being. That wild beastly tendency to fight for survival like is seen in the animal world seizes because man goes to rest in the glory of God.

The knowledge of the Lord covering the whole earth is a sign that happens within us, not an event that happens outwardly like some end time preachers and religious sects preach. There is no such thing as this physical material world getting to the place where it can experience that peace mention in Isaiah 11. That sign is a spiritual signs that is fulfilled only as we ascend up in our consciousness into the pinnacle of creation upon Mount Zion. As long as men remain on the earth, living a life after a consciousness that is earth bound, they can never experience that sign of perfect knowledge and peace of God. So let us stop looking outwardly expecting some form of change in this world system when wars, famines, droughts etc will seize, but let us look into the invisible realm of God's presence and ascend into it. Jesus confirms that His peace he gives to us is not the same type of peace that this world offers [John 14:27].

THE LOSS OF THE COVERING

Adam as we know lost that covering of God consciousness and a sense of nakedness was unfolded before His eyes. Now we must understand that this was when Adam began to hear the voice of God from without, before then it was all a sweet flow of the knowledge of God gushing from within Him and encompassing Him so that He never existed as a separate entity from God. As a result of the fall from grace, that eternal well in the midst of the garden of Eden from which flows water springing up into eternal life was blocked and hidden from the site of man so that man lost a knowledge of the true God and He also lost His inheritance in light. The sense of lack, poverty consciousness, thirst etc has become man's portion because He finds Himself in a wilderness situation. As long as the water from that well within ceases to flow everything withers up and the garden like state of the soul of men is converted into a desert place where there is no life or mirth.

Now if you look closely, the thing that happened in Eden was a putting asunder of that marriage that God joined together in the beginning; this is the cause of the curse today. The blessing which man was generated into in the beginning, as typified in the Garden of Eden, is simply as a result of the union that God instituted in the beginning. All that blessing is lost as the union between the man and woman is put asunder.

Mark 10:6-9 But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female. 7 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife; 8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh. 9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

Now we are talking about that true spiritual marriage that was from the beginning between the Christ (the spirit) and the Church (The souls of men). The woman was never supposed to function outside of the man. She was appointed to sit in submission and silence, not talking; she is not to usurp the authority of the man. Paul confirms this in a letter to Timothy his spiritual son.

1Timothy 2:11-15 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. 12 but I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. 13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve. 14

And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression. 15 notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

Before we go on let me use this occasion to cancel some of the lies that the Devil has propagated through these letters of Paul. The devil working through men and religious organizations have used these letters to Timothy to keep brethren in female vessels in bondage so that they do not contribute their quota to the edification of the Church. Some churches and sects forbid women to preach or flow as the spirit leads them, but they fail to remember that this same Paul that wrote the letters to Timothy also added elsewhere that there is neither male nor female in Christ, He also said we do not move by sight but according to the truth. The letters of Paul to Timothy were generally spiritual letters which Timothy was able to comprehend being skilled in the heavenly spiritual language, in other words Paul wrote some of those letters using allegories.

What Paul is saying in the letters to Timothy is that we should not speak from ourselves (our human knowledge) but only from the Christ within us. We should be subject to the spiritual mate which is the Christ. We should always have His covering in all things that we do otherwise we bring shame exactly the way Eve did in the Garden of Eden. The woman violated this principal by acting by herself outside of Adam; she was the one who went outside and got tempted into eating of the tree of the knowledge of good and Evil and gave to her husband. Read the passage in Genesis 3:9 carefully.

Genesis 3:6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat; and she gave also unto her husband with her, and he did eat.

It was the woman who was deceived not the man like Paul adds in "I Timothy 2:14". She was deceived sinned by joined herself to the serpent and therefore violated that marriage bond with Adam. You can look at the serpent in the garden from different dimensions, in this case we will refer to it as the spirit of carnal mortal man (the flesh) which is the spirit of this world. This is the spirit that works in the children of disobedience today; it works according to the carnal senses and does not know God. Eve got joined in marriage to the spirit of this world. Somebody might say but Adam took of the fruit too, yes He took of it only out of love for her so that He is with her always sharing in her suffering but he was never deceived because he is the truth (The Christ within) and he can not lie against Himself.

This union with the spirit of the world is the thing which makes men walk in a false identity according to the flesh. This means that the soul which is supposed to be one body with the spirit is now one flesh with the spirit of mortal man to bring forth the flesh and blood identity we bear in this material world. It is the adulterous union that has caused man in the fall, to sin against His own true body which is the body of Christ from the beginning.

1Corinthians 6:15.-18 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid. 16 What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh. 17 But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit. 18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.

In reality that union or fellowship of darkness in the flesh is the false husband which we have to divorce ourselves from on this sixth hour or sixth day. We have to cut of from that union and be reunited once more with our true soul mate and husband who is the Christ within; the moment has come when we all have to release ourselves from that consciousness that ties us with this material world through the man of the flesh and be consciously fused back to the true one. It is only as we are fused back into one with the spirit that we can once again feel the gushing current of the knowledge of the living God flowing from within us.

So Christ met the Samaritan woman during the sixth hour and tells her to come with her true Husband so that the same creation of the man as seen on the sixth day is fulfilled once more. It is only then, that fruitfulness and dominion can be restored, it is only then we can become aware of the unlimited spiritual blessing we have in Christ. It is only then that we can drink of that water of life and never suffer thirst again, because he crowns us with everlasting joy and immortality.

In 1 Timothy 2:15 Paul mentions that the woman who was deceived and transgressed against the Lord, shall be saved in child bearing as she continues in faith and charity and holiness and sobriety. Definitely Paul was not saying that women should go on having children after the flesh in order to get saved. He was simply saying that she is saved as she continues in the faith by uniting herself back to the spirit of Christ so that she brings forth anew after the likeness of God. It is in the generation of the seed of Christ that the salvation and blessings of God becomes ours. If we are joined to the spirit of Christ it means we patiently learn to submit every aspect of our lives to Him. It also means we see things the way He sees things, we talk or prophesy only through him. It means we are spiritually sober in Him not being carried away with the wine of the spirit of carnality but always filled with the spirit.

Ephesians 5:22-24 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. 23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body. 24

Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

Then we begin to taste once more of those everlasting streams and the desert like situation is converted back into a garden of God where songs of salvation and joy will be heard. The well within us is opened up and the rivers of life within flows once more. The unhindered current flowing of the depths of God within us begins to gush once more so that we become encompassed by His knowledge. In that day we discover ourselves in Him, the one and only God and eternal life.

Now is the hour to unite with the Lord and receive of that drink that heals every aspect our lives and causes us to abide in His wonderful presence now and forevermore. As Jesus spoke to the Samaritan woman, it was actually the voice of the Alpha and Omega the one who is from age to age inviting His people back into union with Him

Revelations 21:6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

Be blessed
