Escaping Condemnation

The most powerful weapon of the devil today is condemnation He causes to rise up from within and without us. Right from the days in the garden of Eden, Adam lost that covering of power and boldness in the name of God because of this feeling of condemnation. The condemnation that Adam felt lead to His fall. This condemnation is a condemnation unto death. Adam choose to partake of a knowledge that united Him to a mortal entity which tied to this material age. That knowledge is fetched from the carnal mind of men and is completely ignorant of God and His kingdom, it is a knowledge that carves out a completely separate and independent identity from God. That newly carved out image of man, being of the earth is bound to a corruptible nature which produces lusts and therefore defiles mortal man. Man falls from the heights of innocence and power as a result of this defiled conscience which tells Him he is naked and unworthy before God. The systems of men and religion have not helped either, in their attempt to become life givers they actually become cells of the devil used to widen the gap between man and God.

Many men today who desire to love God and serve Him are bound up in the state of condemnation; they are bound in prison houses not being able to come forth to please God. The more they try to follow the laid down procedures of man made institutions of morality, the more they feel this condemnation grow within them. I for one had a fair share of fiery condemnation until God opened my eyes to simple truths that I thought I knew. This message is meant to be a refresher and to encourage the saints who are bound up in this deadly form of condemnation, it is a call to look at the basics foundation of our faith in Christ Jesus.

We should understand that God, our Father is not in the business of condemning people, He is in the business of delivering and shielding people from condemnation. His thoughts are thoughts of good towards all men to bring them to an expected end of joy, peace and security. The whole world is groaning in pain today as a result of this sense of condemnation they feel towards God. Men sink down the pit of hell and perish daily because of the rippling effects of condemnation this men is the one thing that causes men to sink into destruction through the lose of faith and authority in God.

We pass over from the condemnation unto death to justification unto life when we believe the Lord Jesus, and accept His sacrifice by faith. When men reject this grace, they retain their state of condemnation unto death. The true grace of God as revealed through the gospel lifts us out of the realms of condemnation and causes us to walk in full authority of the sons of God. For this reason Jesus says, for God so loved the world that he gave His only begotten son, that whosoever believes in Him shall not perish but shall have eternal life. Those who inherit the life that is the son have passed over from the condemnation that ravages in this world.

Just think of it, all the fear and torment that men suffer is a result of this condemnation within man and to get the victory we seek in God, we must overcome and find an escape route.

Many people today still fall under the spell of condemnation simply because they have not understood the significance of the blood of Jesus nor have they understood the mystery of Christ in relation to themselves. No matter how high up we go in the faith we will discover that it is only the grace that is the blood of Christ that truly gives us the power to inherit the glory of God. Meaning that no man can boast, neither can any man who moves up in God ever judge or condemn His fellow brethren. The more we realize that on our own we can do nothing, the more the doors of God's kingdom opens.

Some of us suffered for many years as a result of this strong sense of condemnation we felt on the inside of us. In my case, everyone around me knew I had the word and I truly wanted to please God. To the contrary they saw an inconsistent Christian in me. One moment I am high and confessing the name of the Lord, the next moment I am displaying fruits that declare otherwise. I went through so much pain and embarrassment as a result of my battle to please God. An idiot and fool I made of myself in the eyes of men, till God opened my eyes to a simple truth. I know of many other brethren who heard the message of the kingdom many years ago and are virtually a wreck today. They keep roaming the earth looking for peace and victory but it deludes them, talk less of other brethren particularly here in Italy who are locked up in the battle with condemnation.

There is one thing we should remember That truth is that God's sacrificial lamb has been slain once and for all times. God has already justified me and accepted me among the beloved. God never looks at what I may term sin but He sees the blood of Jesus that pleads and speaks of good things towards God.

Hebrews 12:22 But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

The blood of Abel and indeed all the prophets killed in this world cried for revenge and judgement against those who killed them. It is the world that killed them, and we were part of that old world system. In Christ we find a new type of blood that overpowers that old type of blood. The blood of Jesus pleads and asks for forgiveness for the world.

This eternal sacrifice (The blood of Jesus) covers us so that God no more looks at what we term sin. God now sees sons in us. We just have to accept the fact that we are saved by grace and not because we did this or we did that. Our salvation is a free gift.

Romans 3:20 -25 Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;

Just look at verses, it says we have been justified freely and God now loves us the way we are. We should never let condemnation take a hold of us any more when what we term sins pop up or when we stumble. All we have to do is remember the blood and move on.

Our sins are covered in Jesus and God sees us as righteous when we believe in the Sacrifice of the Son. The new and only sin that exists is not believing in the grace that is in the blood of Jesus. I used to backslide for months and weeks and get very depressed because I felt God had left me. I felt very disappointed in myself that I could manifest things contrary to the love of God. But God arose and told me “son I love you, just the way you are”. “Nothing can separate me from my love for you”.

Romans 8:38-39 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

We are righteous and we are the sons of God, not because we go to church nor because we wear head coverings or because we give to the poor or because we pay tithes to churches (if you still do that). We are righteous because Christ has died in our place and given us the right to God's love, which in reality comes by revelation.

Romans 4:6-8 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, *Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

When we confess Jesus as Lord, a new being in us is born and the new born spirit will grow and overcome that old man that is lawless. This new born spirit is actually an unveiling of our true identities hidden in Christ; it is an identity that has always been there but was hidden from our sight in the darkness that constitutes this world. The old man is the false identity we have worn in this material age, as the light of the gospel shines forth, our true identity locked up inside comes to light. This is why we have to endure and be patient while the Lord perfects His work in us. We shouldn't be discouraged to the extent of falling back when we lose control of ourselves or when we stumble. If we offend people, we should be bold enough to arise by faith and apologise and move on, We should not allow the Devil working through of minds to deceive us into feeling we are not worthy of the high calling in Christ. We shouldn't let Him tell us we are not covered by the grace the same way He deceived Adam, we should be always ready to stand our ground in the faith.

We have to boldly confess our blamelessness and perfection before the Father, because we are perfect in His sight; he sees that son of perfection in us, who is of the same substance with Him. If we feel a sense of unworthiness it all working within our heart and mind, let us not be deceived God has no hand in the way we feel about ourselves when we are cast down in a sense of condemnation. Jesus Christ Said clearly that he condemns no man, that condemnation comes from within.

Believe in the Cross, look at the Bronze serpent when the serpents bite you. Do not let the venom from the condemnation destroy you and cause you not to see God's blessed promise. Look and remember that it His good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Remember the blood, remember that He has already paid the price for our sins and will finish that work He started in you.

Do not be deceived into thinking you have performed an unforgivable sin. The only way a man can keep Himself from God's salvation is when we rejects the grace and refuse the regeneration work of the spirit in our lives. If the man returns to the Lord and accepts the Lord, He will see the salvation of God. So as long as we reject the blood and spirit of God there is no other remedy to our sin, but if we are humbled and turn back He is faithful and just to forgive. In fact He has already forgiven even the rebellious but they have to come to terms with that reality.

1John 1:9-10 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

Always remember that God is recreating you in the image of Christ and we know Christ is spirit. We were up till now flesh and carnal beings but when we accept Jesus the work starts. The spirit Man that is Born in us as a result of the knowledge of Christ grows and grows. Believe it that inward spirit man in us will grow and completely overcome the outward carnal man. So when carnality pops remember it is no longer you but the old man warring against that spirit man that love's God.

Romans 7:14-25 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin. For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I. If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good. Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do. Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me. For I delight in the law of God after the inward man: But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death? I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

We should never be discouraged when that carnal man manifests just look unto the Cross and believe that you are among the beloved of God. Understand in you that Jesus came to this world in flesh form to experience what the flesh is all about. So right now He is in the position to understand and minister to us when we pass through such moments of temptation.

Let us come out of condemnation, yesterday is gone today is here, Awake to the love that is in Christ Jesus.

John 3:16-18 16 For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. 17 For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved. 18 He who believes in Him is not condemned; but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

JUSTIFICATION OF THE ADULTEROUS WOMAN

God demonstrates His plan of delivering His Church from condemnation, through the testimony of the Adulterous woman. Let us read John 8:2-12

John 8:2-12 2 Now early in the morning He came again into the temple, and all the people came to Him; and He sat down and taught them. 3 Then the scribes and Pharisees brought to Him a woman caught in adultery. And when they had set her in the midst, 4 they said to Him, "Teacher, this woman was caught in adultery, in the very act. 5 Now Moses, in the law, commanded us that such should be stoned. But what do You say?" 6 This they said, testing Him, that they might have something of which to accuse Him. But Jesus stooped down and wrote on the ground with His finger, as though He did not hear. 7 So when they continued asking Him, He raised Himself up and said to them, "He who is without sin among you, let him throw a stone at her first." 8 And again He stooped down and wrote on the ground. 9 Then those who heard it, being convicted by their conscience, went out one by one, beginning with the oldest even to the last. And Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. 10 When Jesus had raised Himself up and saw no one but the woman, He said to her, "Woman, where are those accusers of yours? Has no one condemned you?" 11 She said, "No one, Lord." And Jesus said to her, "Neither do I condemn you; go and sin no more." 12 Then Jesus spoke to them again, saying, "I am the light of the world. He who follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but have the light of life."

The testimony of Jesus is prophetic, meaning that the things He did while on earth, particularly those recorded in the bible are generally like allegories pointing to the marvelous work of salvation that God is unveiling on the earth today. That woman caught in adultery in John 8, represents those who will receive and partake of this great salvation God is unveiling in this world. She is the Church of God picked up from the brink of death and justified by love of God, even though she was initially known to be an adulterous woman.

One may ask, "what is the definition adultery as it is known in this world?". We can simply define it as an act of unfaithfulness that a woman or man commits in relation to His or Her partner. They initially make marriage vows to be faithful to each other in all aspects of life including their sexual life. The moment this vow or bond of faithfulness is broken the offending party is said to be an Adulteress or an adulterer.

All sinners in the world today who live outside the knowledge of Christ Jesus are termed Adulterers because they have joined themselves with the lie, also known as the world, they therefore neglect the knowledge of the son (Christ) who they ought to be joined to in oneness of the spirit. The original design was that man be one with Christ (the spirit) in all truth and faithfulness, this is he only true God and eternal life. When God created man the bible says male and female He created them, that that is the way it was to remain. But mankind has gone astray and has become most unfaithful towards God by losing this union for a union with the carnal spirit of man which is also known as the spirit of the world. Mankind has decided to love the world more than God therefore falling into the category of Adulterers.

James 4:4 4 Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

No man can have two masters, nor can a man have two Gods or two husbands; either we are married to the spirit and become one with the spirit or we are married with the flesh. As long as man lives a life outside the Son (Christ), He falls into sin and death. When man live after the flesh, the doors open to the voices of condemnation and man loses his faith towards God and slips down into a realm of death and destruction. This is what happened to Adam, He was initially married to the spirit represented by the tree of life until he joined Himself to the serpent which represents the carnal mind which is one with the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. The moment man unites with the carnal mind that works hand in hand with this material world, He is imprisoned spiritually and loses His immortal state for a mortal state of flesh and blood. As long as man lives in the lower material consciousness of flesh and blood, He can not in any way please God because the law is spiritual and can be fulfilled only in the son who is the image of the Father.

From all this we can see that the root sin is drifting away from the mark of perfection in Christ. Adam was in Christ before He fell into the snare of the Devil because He was in the image and likeness of God which is the major attribute of Christ. We should bear in mind that the word Christ, which means anointed in the Greek translation is actually a name we use in this age to Describe the Son. In reality the Christ has always been even before men started to use names. As long as we live outside the knowledge of and as the son, we abide in the lower realms of condemnation and death. That sense of condemnation which obscures the view of our oneness with the Father is the root of the tribulation and sufferings seen in humanity today.

The law of Moses which were actually spiritual laws expressed in letters and material form says that adulterers should be stoned to death, that law was only a shadow of that which is spiritual and it can be of benefit only when applied spiritually because the exercising the flesh does not have any profit. Spiritually speaking or in the originality of all things, no one needs to be physically stoned, if a man commits Adultery against God by breaking the bond of oneness with Christ consciously or unconsciously He falls into condemnation and dies off. In reality the whole world as we know it is already perishing under the death sentence because they have all fallen short of that set mark in Christ. It does not matter how a man may seem to prosper outwardly He is actually under a curse, cut off from the life of the Son (Christ). Death will surely find those who break this spiritual principal of keeping our spiritual states in Christ which is faithfulness before God. In fact the whole world is under this condemnation unto death as long as they have not known themselves as the son (Christ).

Romans 3:23 23 for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,

We should also be aware of the fact that our Father, who is the Father of lights is not behind the travails which encompass men resulting from this sense of condemnation on the inside of them, it is all a function of our mind and conscious. God stands out there asking "who told you that you are naked?", "who told you that you are worthless?", "who told you that you are my enemy?", "who told you that I am not there to guide and to protect you?", "Who told you that you are poor and that I have withheld something from you?", "who told you I will not provide for you needs, what you will wear, eat and where you will stay?". God says I never told you that, "it is you darkened mind that has held you captive in dark dungeons of unbelief".

Thank God for His grace, because like the woman caught in adultery, we too were perishing in our ignorance until the Lord came to our rescue. Just like the adulterous woman would have been killed we also would have perished on in our ignorance.

The voices of condemnation we hear within and without men actually come from the lies projected from carnal mind. This voices tell you that you can not be perfect before God. They tell you that we are a separate entity from God. They tell you that god is out to get you. The voices tell you that you can never come to the place where you can truly please God. This voices tell you that you have sinned and passed the point where God will never forgive you. The voices tell you that you are a helpless sinner and you will never overcome. This are the voices of unbelief acually the destructive powers that lower men into the grave by weakening their faith and boldness in God.

As these accusations of the Devil who is the accuser of the Brethren goes forth know for sure that the Lord is not bothered. He has loved you, He has covered you, He has justified you. Can a man not love His own body? The Lord sees and recognizes His own body in us, the bone of His bones and nothing more, He recognizes His sheep in us that was lost in the darkness of this age. As the men who caught the woman in adultery railed accusations on the woman and sought kill her, they were shocked when they met a brick wall in Jesus, He simply ignored them. Jesus ignored them because in reality they do not exist, they existed only in the mind of the woman, they are simply imaginations that spring out from within those who walk in the lower realms of ignorance. Brethren do you get this, let the devil roar and roar, He can not touch you as long as you recognize and understand your true identity in Christ.

Ignoring them, Jesus bent over and started to write on the Ground while they were accusing the woman. At a point He arose and told them if they are without sin they should kill the Lady, then He continued writing. From this we can discern that Jesus knows the very state of the carnal unregenerate man. He has not come to save the righteous but He came for sinners, He has not come to condemn but to justify all men so that they can once more live in the fullness of the light of life. Jesus Christ came to help us out of the dark pit of ignorance so we shouldn't be discouraged, just believe. Believe that your barren land will be turn into a fruitful land overflowing with rivers of gladness. Believe that you shall bring forth a new creature after the likeness of Christ, a creature can walk perfect and whole before the face of the Father. Is anything too hard for God? If we say no, know for sure that God can turn your spiritual barrenness into fruitfulness our focus should be on the Lord.

While Jesus was writing the accusers diminished in number till they were no more. All we ever need to do is to gather at the feet of the Lord so that He teaches us by His spirit. No man can teach us neither can any man deliver and make us whole, it is only as we individually open our the door to our hearts that the Lord enter to teach us His word. The work of the ministry is to connect each and every member of the body back to their master not to be master to them. If we submit to men we will only get tons of accusations welling up from within because we become greater sons of hell than they are, meaning that man's teachings only widens the gap between man and God therefore creating the environment called hell. There is only one teacher, and every man who wants to see life must learn from Him. It is written that all will be taught of Him, from the least to be greatest.

Brethren the mystery Here is that God is working in our innermost part and recreating us. No matter how we feel as long as we submit to Him and believe Him, He will accomplish this great work in us. As the Lord does this work in us we shall actually see the day where the accuser of the brethren is cast down from our thought faculties and all boldness towards the Father is restored. No more will we feel that condemnation which wastes men in the pit of destruction, because the Lord will cause us to work in His law. Like Jesus wrote on the ground, He will with the finger of God write the laws on the innermost parts of our beings. The Lord will write the laws on our hearts so that we will walk in perfection and agreement with Him.

Jeremiah 31:33 33 But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put My law in their minds, and write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people.

Ezekiel 36:26-27 26 I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; I will take the heart of stone out of your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. 27 I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you will keep My judgments and do them.

This feat is accomplished by the regeneration of our minds from the lies of the carnal mind (Serpent) into the truth which is Christ. The spirit teaches us and joins us to our true spiritual image in Christ where we can once more fulfill the pleasure of the Lord. As this work occurs within us, that true perfect and holy personality on the inside of us comes forth to light. This is the son of God revealed from heaven for all to see, the one who walks in the glory of the Father and cannot sin. In that day every sense of unbelief fades away, no more will we here the voice of the accuser condemnation but it shall be the voice of the Lord.

Once you understand the message of the kingdom and believe in Jesus, let it sink into you, there is no condemnation in Christ Jesus. In him we move from glory to glory, from strength to strength until we see that perfect day.

Romans 8:1 8:1 There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.

God Bless you
