Revelations 3:20 Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

SEEKING THE LOVE OF GOD

Philippians 3:7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. 8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, 9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: 10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; 11 If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead. 12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus. 13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, 14 I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. 15 Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you. 16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

"That I might know Him, and feel His love and His thoughts towards me because His love is better than life. I have left behind all that I acquired in this world so that I can behold the glory of God in love. I left all so that I can arise out from the miry clay in which I found myself and stand on the rock of all ages. All that I sought out to build in my name, I have forsaken so that I might be found in Him. In Him I can feel the love of the Father, because the Father loves the son and has given all to the son ."

John 3:35 The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.

"Every breath I take and every step I take is towards knowing Him and tasting of His power that will raise me up and sustain me in His likeness. His power will raise me up from the graveyard of humanity, it will open my eyes, my ears and loosen my tongues. As His power raises me up I begin to behold His love and hear His voice like a bride would the bridegroom. My tongue that was once tied will be loosened to praise the Lord and declare His glory unto even generations unborn. As I arise out of the dust or the flesh consciousness into His consciousness and love every aspect of my old false identity dissolves and my whole being flows into Him like a river. Like a river I flowed out of Him but the the circuits I return back into Him"

Psalm 17:15 As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness.

"Like the Psalmist will say, there is one thing I have asked of the Lord, it is that I dwell in the House where His presence is, that I might behold His glory and to inquire or search out the length, width and breath of His love which surpasses the imagination of mortal man. Throughout eternity I will search out the infinite depths of love in God."

Ephesians 3:17-19 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, 18 May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; 19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God.

"Before now my view was obscured so that I couldn't see Him nor did I feel His loving arms around me. I lived in fear and doubt of tomorrow because I never felt your true loving presence around me. I saw another who was constantly terrorizing me with nightmares of destruction and hopelessness. I thank God for His saving hand that is willing and always ready to deliver me out of the prison house of sin consciousness and limitedness into His broad house of unlimited possibilities and resources.

Job 36:16

16 "Indeed He would have brought you out of dire distress, Into a broad place where there is no restraint; And what is set on your table would be full of richness.

FEAR MEANS ABSENCE OF THE LOVE OF GOD.

If we still live in the fears and in the anxieties of humanity either we have not known Him or we have not been perfected in His love. The perfect love model being revealed from the heaven in this last time, is the infallible model that will deliver man from all forms of fear. Fear and anxiety is torment, it has its roots in the darkness of the ignorant heart. Fear is the force that propels men into doing the things that they do in most cases. Fear generates liars, thieves, murderers, prostitution, hate, insecurity and depression. It also generates malfunctioning and deteriorating health conditions like heart attacks, high blood pressure, arthritis and many others complications in this world. Why do men ruling in the world system gather so much and become excessively rich while they live many other to languish in poverty? It is all rooted in fear for themselves, to preserve and to protect themselves for tomorrow. From the moment a man or woman is born into this world He is initiated into a web like system of fear and anxiety. This is the world or realm of those who have not known the love of Lord nor walk in it. Jesus referred to them as the gentiles or nations of the earth, these are the ones who occupy themselves with fear of tomorrow, what they will eat, what they will wear, how they will be sheltered and how they will preserve themselves in the world.

Matthew 6:25-34 Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment? Mat 26 Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they? 27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature? :28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: 29 And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? 31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? 32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. 33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. 34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Sit back and reflect on the things that men occupy their minds with 99% of the time. It is simply worries generated from fear of His tomorrow. The illusion here is that the more you focus your mind on seeking to secure that future you live in fear of, the more entangled you find yourself in the universal web of bondage. The gathering in the way of this world only plunges men into deep sorrow and untold hardships. It is like sinking down quick sand or falling into a bottomless pit like Paul wrote in a letter to Timothy.

1 Timothy 6:6 But godliness with contentment is great gain. 7 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. 8 And having food and raiment let us be therewith content. 9 But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. 10 For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. 11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. 12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

The earthly carnal man of this world seeks security because He feels all alone, He feels separated from the love of God. When man tries to fill in that void created by His sense of annihilation from God He only creates mischief, He creates an environment and an imaginary false world around Him only to find himself in greater need. Adam in the bible Bible lost His knowledge of love towards God when He associated Himself with the serpent which is the spirit of this world. The nakedness He felt and His hiding from God's presence is the result of fear. In the fallen state, first of all God who we know in our innermost being exists is now perceived as an enemy to us, so we live in constant fear of failure because our hearts condemn us telling us we do not please Him. Man now has to fend for Himself and occupies Himself with covering Himself and thinking of tomorrow. Man through Adam was cast into a wilderness state from that original garden state, He was created in. The wilderness state is a lower realm of existence where you live in lack and want of every thing, it is a realm of fear and unbelief. In that state of fear and separation far away from the love and unity with the living God, man is compelled to toil and labor on his own with worries about tomorrow, worries about how to survive by the arm of the flesh. We know that those who depend on the arm of the flesh will not see the good of God's salvation, He will remain in the wilderness state of want.

Jeremiah 17:5-6 Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD. 6 For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land and not inhabited.

As long as we remain consciously outside the confines of His loving presence, we can only yield thorns, like the cactus trees in the harsh wilderness places. which is a type of the fruit of pain, sorrow and death. What Adam lost in the beginning was His Love relation with the omnipotent one. God never stopped loving Adam, it is Adam who felt this void and separation from God by the obscuring of His mind with the lie of the Devil. The effect of this void generating fear in Adam caused His exit from God's kingdom into the lower parts of existence called the world a realm separate from the love of God.

ASCENDING BACK INTO THE LOVE OF GOD

Christ was revealed to take us back to the heights from which we fell, he has come to restore us back to the kingdom of His love which is our first love. We now have to arise and reverse the downward trend we have taken all these years. In our state of sleep we all had virtually fallen in love with images that are not from the mind of God, for this reason John says love not this world or the things in it [1 John 2:15-17]. He further called these things idols [1 John 5:21]. Love not the false projected images from our carnal minds, these are the images that have created the world we live in. We should now return to God and set our hearts and minds on the truth emitting from the heart and mind of God. Anything not coming from the heart and mind of God is a lie and the world lives in this lie. The downward trend of the world is derived from the fact that they have their minds on earthly things thinking that they can derive safety and satisfaction from them. We must now turn around in repentance and begin to seek the love of God once more. Seek ye first His kingdom and His love and the rest will follow, lay hold on eternal life by fighting the good fight of faith. Let us live behind the ambitions and the thought out devices and seek that love that surpasses all knowledge. This is the first trumpet message that John heard in the book of revelation.

Revelation 2:4-7 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love. 5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent. 6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate. 7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

As we are united with that love from above, not just by letter we become aware that all things work out for good because He loves us and we stand approved in His sight. We find ourselves back to the garden state of rest and pleasures where we were created to be in. We know for sure that we are in Him and He in us so that the very power that sustains every element in the universe sustains us. The lilies of the valleys, the birds of the air, the fishes in the deep the stars and all other bodies in the heavens and other many uncountable things are sustained by Him, how much more we who are loved with an everlasting love of God. Eternal life is knowing God and His love because God is love and in Him is no darkness at all. His love is that which will give all of us rest from the torments and fears we found in humanity.

1John 4:18-19 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love. 19 We love him, because he first loved us.

In the world or in the lower realm of existence where we are separated from the true love of God, we can have only torment and tribulation. Just forget your well thought out plans for tomorrow and rethink it all over in the only begotten of the Father. The peace we seek is only found as we rediscover ourselves in Christ who is in the bosom of the Father, no other thing will do.

John 16:33

33 These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world."

As we ascend back into His loving hands from the lower parts to be found IN HIM like Paul wrote, we discover we are one body in Christ. It is like ascending up a pyramid or a mountain, the pyramid or the mountain unites in one at the peak. This is a picture of the true spiritual eternal mountain called mount Zion, the dwelling place of God, the joy of the whole earth, the place of the king's throne [Psalm 48:1-3], the place where all dwell together in unity [Psalm 133:1-3]. Like the peak of the mountain touches heaven so also does the peak of mount Zion where we who are called out gather in Christ. In heaven there is only one man and one God, that man is the Christ, the son of the living God, beloved and favored of God. In the ascension the world will be able to discern and be converted where they see a people so knitted together in pure love and oneness of purpose. I have met some brethren online, and even communicated with others and I am filled with awe when I observe that we have like minds and like purposes. I could be in Milan preaching and preaching in Africa or in Australia at the same time because it is the spirit in me is also speaking through the brethren dispersed all over the world.

If you feel condemnation in you because of a sense of intolerance and lack of love towards others, the key to deliverance is to ascend up spiritually to explore the love of God. It is only as you receive of His unlimited resources in love that we can emit that love. It is only as we receive His light that we can give out that light. You can not give what you do not have, as long as we lurk around in the impoverished state of humanity in the fall absent from God's love, there is no way you can manifest love. You can manifest affection like in the animal kingdom which is a self fake version of love.

Just observe the bodies and masses in the heavens, they always give and give freely, never receiving or asking a reward from the earth. The earth does the opposite it receives and receives and never gives. The wilderness or the barren lands or the barren wombs only receive but they never give fruit back to they sower this is the state of men of the earth. The stars give and give, the clouds give and the sun gives, It is only as we are converted into that spiritual heavenly man and we become connected back to His love, then we can manifest the love of God to all men. We who believe are from above and not from below, we are the head and not the tail, we reign in Him, manifesting His love in always giving unto all men.

Deuteronomy 28:12-13 The LORD shall open unto thee his good treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his season, and to bless all the work of thine hand: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow. 13 And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them:

Jesus admonishes the Brethren saying be ye perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Matthew 5:43-48 43 "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' 44 But I say to you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you, 45 that you may be sons of your Father in heaven; for He makes His sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. 46 For if you love those who love you, what reward have you? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? 47 And if you greet your brethren only, what do you do more than others? Do not even the tax collectors do so? 48 Therefore you shall be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect.

This is only possible as you feel the love of the Father in you. It is only possible as we find ourselves in His loving arms on our return like the Prodigal Son returned in the loving arms of the Father. The Son knows the Father and feels the love of His Father. In likewise manner the Father knows the son and manifests His love for His son. When we grow in the consciousness of His love and His riches in glory we become lights like He is Light, we become an expression of love like He is love. We become like clouds refreshing the earth with that same way He refreshes us. As we behold His glory in love we are transformed into that love. These are the things we should occupy ourselves with, seeking His Love

LEAVING ALL FOR HIS LOVE

I suffered the loss of all things that I gained in this world so that I can gain Christ --- Apostle Paul. All that we have acquired in this age or in this world, like our separate identities from God has to go down the drain so that we can take a hold on the true one which is Christ. It is only in Christ that we can feel the love of God once more. The Father loves the son which is Christ and He has given all things to Him. God is love and will not withhold anything from anyone, all we have to do is to find ourselves in Christ. We have to rediscover our true identities in Him by humbling our old selves and putting on the Christ. Jesus Himself as a man made that sacrifice by leaving His identity of a man born of a woman and a Hebrew and identifying with the Christ. He had the confession in His lips saying I go to the Father. He was propelled by the desire to know the Father and to be found in Him.

Moses had to also leave all the glories of Egypt before encountering the voice in the burning bush. Elijah had to leave the hustle and bustle of the City to hear that still voice. Elisha had to leave all to see the Chariots of Fire when He shouted Father, Father. They were all called out, the same way we are being called out of the realms of ignorance of God's love into the light where we can see His love and be enveloped in that love once more.

Abraham the Father of our faith was also called out, He had to leave His old family traditions and gods to seek the glory of God. In His search He heard the voice saying "FEAR NOT I AM YOUR EXCEEDING GREAT REWARD", "I WILL CAUSE YOU TO BE A BLESSING TO ALL MEN", "I WILL MAKE YOU EXCEEDINGLY FRUITFUL", "I WILL CAUSE YOU TO PREVAIL OVER THE GATES OF YOU ENEMY". Amen. what God was saying is that "I will cause you and your seed to be as me". "I will cause you and your seed to be a giver of good and a blessing unto all men", "I will cause you and your seed to return to the kind of fruitfulness that is in the garden of Eden". "I will cause you and your seed to prevail against the gates of hell". Even though Abraham died in faith not receiving this promise, all of this is now fulfilled in Christ. So all we have to do is to forsake all like Abraham to seek for that precious promise of greatness from God.

The search might look difficult and frustrating at times because as you search Him you discover the more how helpless you are. You find yourself at times in the wilderness of unbelief, temptation and sin consciousness. Voices rise up from within and without seeking to get you back out from seeking the Lord. At times it may seem the finances are not going well, health is not at it's best. At times you feel sin consciousness that tells you you are no good, just abandon the faith. Many get offended and fall back into the world system only to heap up more sorrow for themselves. The word is patience, endurance and perseverance, we should always stir up ourselves unto seeking the love of God. The Lord is not a man that He should lie if you have understood the call and you set out to seek His Face, you will find Him.

The Lord knowing fully well some of the problems men encounter as they seek Him, has provided His word and His spirit of revelation into the deeper things of God. All these serve to strengthen our faith while the dark shadows of ignorance fade away. Even Jesus in His humanity needed an angel from heaven to strengthen Him in His faith as He battled with His self will and the will of God. The spirit of God like the angel strengthens our faith and consoles us in our quest to knowing God by unveiling wonderful things for us to see. The revelation of His thoughts increases our faith, it is this faith that keep us from the wicked one. The wicked one seeks to obscure our sight from the love of God, but by the faith in God we remain firm.

We should never forget that we have a high priest who understands your travails because he experienced the same things we experienced. he was tempted on every side,

We saw the climax at Gethsemane when he groaned under the pressure upon Him by the flesh to abandon the work of the cross. So we have one in heaven who knows what we are all going through and is always willing to forgive and lead us on into greater heights. Even as the wicked one begins to bite like the serpents in the wilderness did to the Israelites we should look until the cross as they looked unto the bronze serpent. He has suffered for us so that we should boldly come out of the poisonous effects of condemnation from the wicked one. One of the signs that will follow His true believers is that they will take up serpents with their hands and it will not harm them. Yes no more will the deceitfulness of condemnation and sin consciousness inflicted upon us by the wicked one affect us anymore because of our faith in His blood and in His work on the cross. No more will the carnal knowledge of good and evil in this world system make us feel naked with guilt and shrink away from the love of God.

As we patiently keep His word by denying of ourselves while ascending back to our true selves in Him, we suddenly find the doors of God's Kingdom realistically opened before us. We begin to find satisfaction in our walk towards him because the shadows that obscured our eyes pass away. We become conscious of a total rebirth where the carnal man that warred against God fades away. We find our ourselves in Him as Him so that a new man is revealed from Heaven, a man one with God from the beginning of creation. The message to the Church in Philadelphia mentions this.

Revelation 3:10-12 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth. 11 Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown. 12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

The new Jerusalem descending from heaven is the body of Christ coming to view before the whole world. As we find yourself in Him the city of God, the kingdom of God in us comes in contact with people of this world through us. God promises that we will enter in and no more go out, Amen. We will enter into the eternal Abode of God never to fall back again. We enter into His loving arms never to feel that torment and fear upon humanity any more. We then will become like models for the world to see and believe and enter in so that they too might be saved.

In due season after sowing in patience realizing God is not unrighteous to forget your labor in good works with patience unto His body. As we occupy ourselves in Him mediating on his word and on His precious promises not carried away by the anxieties of men, He watches over us with the sole intent of causing you to sit down on His throne with kings. Remember He does not withhold good from anyone like we once felt. His good pleasure is to give you His kingdom of Power and glory. His good pleasure is to come and dwell with us and fellowship in love. This is the fellowship that heals all our diseases and binds up the broken hearts.

Job 36:7

7 He does not withdraw His eyes from the righteous; But they are on the throne with kings, For He has seated them forever, And they are exalted.

So let us strengthen ourselves in His remembrance every second of our lives, never losing concentration but holding on to Him that is able to give us life, peace and Joy.

Be blessed in His loving arms
